

Equal in Faith Consciousness Raising Discussion Questions

1. What do you cherish about your faith community, and why do stay?
2. What are the major debates for forbidding women's ordination, full inclusion, and/or women's leadership in religious traditions? How are these debates in traditions similar? Different?
3. What effects could the inclusion of women's full participation in religious tradition have upon secular society?
4. What structures within your religious tradition need to change to allow for a community where all are equal, liberated from oppression, and nourished spiritually?
5. How do we proceed in advocating for gender justice when there's little to no response from religious officials and/or decision makers?
6. The 2015 theme for Women's History month is "Making it Happen." How do you plan to "make it happen" in the coming year?
